i. History of the Institution

Dev Samaj, a unique religious movement was founded in 1887, by the most worshipful Master Bhagwan Dev Atma, the great and illustrious founder of Dev Samaj who realized that it is the place of women in the society that determines the level of civilization and that the future of women lays in Education. He made women education one of the chief planks of Dev Samaj's contribution to social reforms. The college has been striving to maintain the high ideals of its founding father who sought the regeneration of mankind and transformation of society through women's education for the period over a half century.

Dev Samaj College of Education for Women was started in 1943. It is the first non - governmental Teachers' Training college in the whole of United Punjab. Our college has made a mark not only in academics but also in the field of multi-dimensional co-curricular activities.

ii. Vision Statement

In tune with the vision of most worshipful Bhagwan Dev Atma, the great and illustrious Founder of Dev Samaj, to empower and emancipate women, the vision of the college is to shape, sensitize, and inculcate in the prospective teachers a desire for excellence combined with right attitude, values and ideologies.

iii. Mission and Objectives

The mission of the college is to strive and maintain high ideals of regeneration of mankind and transformation of society, by imparting appropriate skills for livelihood and instill a scientific temperament through a value based education system.

iv. Significant achievement and Contributions in the field of Education, such as Awards/Recognition, Eminent Alumni etc.
